WANTED Technologies welcomes The St. Louis Post-Dispatch to its client roster

Montreal, March 27, 2007 - WANTED Technologies (TSX-V: WAN) announces today that the St. Louis Post-Dispatch has chosen WANTED's recruitment advertising technology solutions to provide sales intelligence to their classified advertising sales teams.

"We are taking steps to ensure our competitive success in recruitment classifieds by supplementing the strategic tools available for our sales representatives," says Ian Caso, recruitment advertising manager at the Post-Dispatch. "WANTED's technology will enable our teams to make more proactive outbound sales calls and to better understand the media needs of our advertisers."

The Post-Dispatch will integrate WANTED recruitment Leads for new business prospects and current customer updates into their sales process. Additionally, the newspaper will use WANTED Analytics, a live dashboard tool of online recruitment advertising activity for employers throughout the country.

About The St. Louis Post-Dispatch

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch newspaper ranks second in Sunday and fifth in daily reach among newspapers in the top 25 most populated markets in the United States. It is the largest of 53 daily newspapers owned by Lee Enterprises, along with rapidly growing online services and more than 300 weekly newspapers and specialty publications in 23 states. Lee is based in Davenport, Iowa, and its stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol LEE. For more information about the St. Louis Post-Dispatch visit www.stltoday.com.
