WANTED Technologies Wins Prestigious IBR Candidate Award at the Annual Stock Company Gala in Quebec City

Quebec City, Quebec – March 11th, 2008. WANTED Technologies Corporation (TSX-V: WAN), a leader in sales and competitive intelligence solutions for online media corporations, newspapers and magazines, is pleased to announce that they received one of only four awards given at the Annual Stock Company Gala held in Quebec City on February 27th. As the recipient of the IBR Candidate Award*, WANTED Technologies was recognized for increases in both stock price (by 76%) and sales and profits in 2007.

“We are thrilled that our leading-edge proprietary data aggregating and sales intelligence tools have made the right kind of impact on the marketplace, reflecting our solid track record for helping clients optimize their sales performance. Our growing client base has validated that we are indeed providing what the market wants, and have even exceeded expectation. Inspired, we continue to innovate and adapt to the market’s ever-changing landscape,” enthuses Scott Burton, President and CEO, WANTED Technologies.

Mr. Burton adds, “Our diverse team of IT and business experts, with backgrounds in applied Science and entrepreneurial experience, have built WANTED into a company that effectively transforms raw data into sales intelligence, enabling our customers to gain a competitive edge in their marketplace.”

The Annual Stock Company Gala recognizes the best performance among the 49 publicly traded companies in the Quebec Chaudiere-Appalaches (QCA) area. WANTED Technologies has been recognized as the best performer among those who are not part of QCA Regional Stock Market Index (IBR).

* IBR = Indice Boursier Regional (Regional Market Index). IBR-QCA is the IBR for Quebec Chaudiere-Appalaches.

About the Annual Stock Company Gala
